NATIONAL PARK & DOUBLE CREEK FRONTAGE

This property is nestled between two of the major creeks on the North Coast which start in the Toonumbar National Park and follow all the way to Ballina. The land is a mix of natural grazing with areas of pasture improvement to stands of beautiful scrub and hardwoods.

It is very unique and is the last property up the valley which gives you heaps of privacy.

The present owner is running 132 steers and improvements include a small weekender cabin and out buildings.

Apart from the two permanent creeks there are several spring fed dams and gullies throughout the property.

The land runs from small areas of undulating creek flats to a steep ridge. The soils are scrub and basalt soils.
