"HORSE STATION CREEK"

197 Ettrick Road, Kyogle

HORSE STATION CREEK

This tightly held property is situated only a few minutes out of Kyogle. The 36.42 hectares or 90 acres has been immaculately maintained for well over 60 years.

All the improvements are in excellent condition which consists of a 4-bedroom home which has had recent renovations done. The house is set nicely back off the road and has commanding northerly views. Other improvements include a dairy building, machinery shed, timber barn, tractor shed, shaded fully equipped stockyards and a disused piggery building ideal for storage.

The water supply comes from water storage tanks, a fully equipped bore which pumps to a header tank and then gravity feeds several water troughs, an equipped well and of course, Horse Station Creek which runs through the property.

The land which is covered with Paspalum, runs from a gentle ridge down to arable creek flats, which are suitable for fattening steers, running cows and calves or 70% of the property could be cultivated.

The property is subdivided into several paddocks with good shade in most of the grazing paddocks and there are smaller holding paddocks near the
