231 Old Tweed Road Wadeville, Kyogle

AUCTION - OPEN FARM THIS SATURDAY 9-11AM

"STUNNING" is the only word to describe this unbelievable 53 acres of land. Stunning because of the panoramic views of Mount Warning, Night Cap, Mount Burrell and of course the Border Ranges National Park plus the native trees located on its rich red volcanic soils.

To be fair to all buyers who having looking for that very special block of land, it must go to Auction.

Power is connected to an old house on the property which has a new council approved septic system costing over $20K.

There are plenty of building sites to take in the stunning views or you may prefer to renovate the old house, the choice is for the new owner. There are excellent stands of mature trees which make good shade for your horses or cattle and a new dam.

The property is situated less than one hours drive to Coolangatta Airport going through Uki, Murwillumbah & Tweed Heads. The property is also close to Kyogle, Nimbin & Lismore
