by troughs that are reticulated from a large dam that is fed by 3 separate springs. So each paddock has a trough or a dam or the creek for water. All of the country has been cleaned of weed and has been sowed with improved pasture species including Rhodes, Seteria and Shaw's Creeping Vigna. The land is suitable for any type of livestock.

Other improvements include a solid set of cattle yards, complete with a vet crush and a trough. A 26 x 20 metre horse training arena that is enclosed in belting and has a sand base to reduce animal injury and soreness. There are three other sheds that could be used for machinery/hay storage and a workshop plus dog kennels and a aviary.

Everything is done! And we haven't showed you the best part, "Smith's Creek", the property boasts the best swimming hole on it. The creek paddock is gorgeous and contains a bend in the creek that runs from rapids through to two deep holes and back to rapids. On its side the start of a bush kitchen camping area with the frame standing and awaiting your personal touches. This area is so picturesque it could easily be used to host a bush wedding.

A beautifully presented, perfectly developed property that boasts exceptional natural beauty. Call Lance today on 0455589932 as this one won't last!
