THE REAL ESTATE GROUP

The property is nestled between Boorabee mountain and Fairymount near Kyogle and consists of rich volcanic basalt soils and native timbers where you can graze up around 60 steers. The land is gentle undulating at the front and runs back into timbered ridges and plateaus ideal for grazing, bike riding, 4-wheel driving and bush walking.

The present owners have levelled building sites with the intention of building a couple of houses and sheds on a high cleared ridge that has commanding views.

All the tracks and roads in and around the property are in very good condition.
