This lovely property consists of 109.6 Acres of well balanced grazing country with the added bonus of over 700 metres of Iron Pot Creek frontage.

The land has approx. 25 acres of alluvial creek flats suitable for any type of cropping or grazing. The balance is clean basalt hill country.

Improvements include a 8m x 12m Steel lockup shed with a concrete floor, stockyards with a crush and loading ramp, water troughs located over the top and bottom paddocks which are gravity feed from a spring fed dam. Stock water from the water troughs plus 4 dams with 2 being spring fed.

This is a real good starter block and comfortably runs 40 cows and calves.

The property has excellent building sites with views and power running through near the building site.

Dont miss this great opportunity to purchase this prize parcel of land on the very popular Iron Pot Creek
