PRODUCTIVE GRAZING Paddock

Consisting of over 200 acres, this very productive property is renowned for breeding top class butchers veal and weaners for many years.

The property has a combination of well drained basalt soils running to rich red volcanic soils with approx. 40 acres of Blue Grass, Seteria & Rhodes used for hay production and fattening.

The property will carry 70 cows and calves and is located between Kyogle and Casino and within 30 minutes of Lismore. There are numerous house sites with views back towards Mount Warning and over the Richmond River Valley.

It is well watered by a permanent spring fed creek which runs through the centre of property plus several dams.

Improvements include a 4 bay solid timber frame shed with a concrete floor and a full set of steel cattle yards including a vet crush and loading ramp.

This property is ideally suited to back grounding steers or heifers or running cows and calves.

Not often do clean paddocks like this come up for sale, so the opportunity to purchase over 200 acres of excellent grazing and fodder growing country
