Kyogle REAL ESTATE

Station Creek running through the property. It has numerous swimming holes along the creek and an electric pump is set up to pump up to the header tanks to supply stock and garden water. There are also two bores and four dams as well as rainwater tanks for the house. The property has two sets of cattle yards, horse stables, old dairy bails which have been partially restored and numerous other out-buildings. Two huge sheds plus one small machinery shed provide ample storage. The property has approximately 15 paddocks for cattle grazing. The creek flats and a plateau paddock can be farmed for cattle. Pastures include Seteria, Rhodes, giant paspalum, native grasses and some Wynn-Cassia with soils being a mixture of red and black basalt and alluvial soils and will carry 90 - 100 breeders. The property is 3kms from Kyogle, 35 minutes to Lismore, about an hour to Ballina Airport and just over 2 hours to Brisbane.
