and then the land rises up to undulating low hills and plateaus used grazing, then running back into some heavily timbered hills and ridges with Peter Finn creek being the back boundary.

There are large quantities of Spotted Gum, Tallowwoods, Stringy Bark, Grey Gum and Iron Bark suitable for harvesting.

The soils range from fertile composted scrub soils to a variety of basalt soils.

Water on the property includes Peter Finn creek at the rear, 3 x 22,500L Rainwater Storage Tanks and a legal easement through to Iron Pot Creek for domestic and stock if needed. All cattle troughs are fed from the large elevated dam providing high pressure across the property for gardens and lawns plus the many established fruit trees around the house area.

The property would run 50 to 60 breeders with the added opportunity to harvest some timber through applying for NVP & PFP for extra income.

Situated only minutes from Toonumbar Dam and a short drive back into Kyogle this property offers just so much, there is also a magnificent building site for a second home with power already there.
